(b) There are no plans under consideration of the Government to allow clinical trials of the new drugs concurrently. However, clinical trials for new drugs discovered abroad for diseases prevalent in India may be examined for approval of clinical trials simultaneously in India in the interest of consumers benefit.

As regards anti cancer and other life saving drugs, drug rules under Drugs & Cosmetics Act 1940 prescribe that the requirement for submitting the results of local clinical trials may not be necessary if the drug is of such a nature that the licensing authority may, in public interest, decide to grant such permission based on data available from other countries. The anti cancer drug Gemcite for treatment of lung cancer was approved based on recommendation of Cancer Experts in the Country.

(c) to (e) Measures to boost up investment in the drug industry and strategies for the promotion of R&D in drug sector are given in "Modifications in Drug Policy, 1986"

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF ENVIRONMENT AND FORESTS (PROF. SAIFUDDIN SOZ): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) to (d) The said news report deals with the subject of regulating access to biological resources of the country. Soon after India ratified the Convention on Biological Diversity in February 1994 and became a Party to the Convention, the Ministry of Environment and Forests initiated steps to design a comprehensive legislation on biodiversity. One of the main objectives of this legislation would be to regulate access to biological resources of the country. Biodiversity being a wide subject, consultations with various stake holders, related departments and Ministries, State Governments, experts, etc., were required, and initiated. Analysis and examination of all existing regulations having any linkage with biodiversity was also required and has now been done. Taking note of the time required to complete this exercise, the Ministry of Environment and Forests simultaneously worked on developing an interim measure to regulate export of biological resources of India under the Foreign Trade (Development & Regulation) Act 1992. This exercise was done through an inter-ministerial Group which also had NGOs and experts as its members. The draft Public Notice made by this Group has finally not been found suitable because of its implications for trade and difficulties in its implementation. Following inter-ministerial consultations on the subject in January 1997, the work on a comprehensive legislation has been speeded up.
